Transition words are words and phrases used to help organize paragraphs. They create a smooth and logical flow throughout the writing.

Paragraph using transition words:

My family took a trip to the park. First, we hiked the trails. Then we ate lunch at a picnic table. Last we played on the playground. It was a fun day!